Boat licence privacy notice

Privacy notice: how we use your personal data. We are the data controller for this service. We are allowed to process your personal data because we have official authority to issue boat licences for the waterways where we are the navigation authority. The lawful basis for processing your personal data is to perform a task in the public interest that is set out in law. If you do not give us the personal data requested then we will not be able to process your boat licence application.

What we do with your personal data

We use your personal data to take payment, issue a suitable boat licence, make sure conditions of the licensing are met and take enforcement action if you do not keep to the conditions of the licence. We may also contact you with important information relating to your licence, boat safety, navigation and environmental matters.

We may use the personal information you give us to:

- consult with you on licencing, navigation and environmental issues
- ask for your feedback on our service

We may also share your personal data with other organisations where we are legally allowed to do so but only in relation to our navigation and licensing functions.

If you have any concerns or queries about how we process personal data, or if you would like to make a complaint or request relating to data protection, please contact our offices via enquiries@middlelevel.gov.uk. You can find out about your personal data rights from the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) at www.ico.org.uk. The ICO regulate the data protection legislation. You have the right to lodge a complaint with them at any time. This notice was last updated on 31st March 2021.
